Attention is invited to the notification published in Part IV of the Mysore Gazette, dated the 5th December 1918, page 1063, calling for tenders for providing additional accommodation in Government Central Distillery at Bangalore.

C. VIJAYARANGAM NAIDU,
Executive Engineer.

Notice dated 5th December 1918.

Notice is hereby given that mango, tamarind, honge and other trees standing alive on the alignment of roads in the proposed new extension to the east of Fort Centre road, Bangalore City, will be sold by public auction on the 21st December 1918, commencing from 8 A.M. to 12 noon.

2. The sale will be conducted by the Executive Engineer, City Improvement Division, or his duly authorized agent.

3. The trees will have numbers marked on them and will be sold singly or in groups as it may appear convenient to the officer conducting the sale, and will be knocked down to the highest bidder, who should immediately deposit 25 per cent of the amount bid, and pay the balance of purchase money within five days from the date of sale, at the Office of the Executive Engineer, City Improvement Division. On the purchaser failing to do so, the trees will be resold at his risk, and loss, if any, made good from the deposit amount.

4. On full payment of the amount, a permit in writing will be given to the purchaser, who should then cut the trees with roots up to 3 feet below the surface of the road, and remove them with roots, branches, etc., from the site within fifteen days from the date of permit. The watching and care-taking of the trees after the sale would rest with the purchasers. The permits should be handed over to the Sub-Division Officer, City Improvement Division, before cutting is commenced.

5. If the purchaser fails to remove the whole or any portion of the cut trees, he will forfeit his claim to such trees or portions of it left, and the Executive Engineer aforesaid will be competent to stop the removal of the trees cut, unless the roots are dug up and cleared with the portions of the trees above ground.

J. E. A. D'CRUZ,
Executive Engineer.

KRISHNARAJASAGARA WORKS.

Dated 9th December 1918.

Notice is hereby given that sealed tenders will be received by the undersigned, up to 1st March 1919, for the supply of undermentioned articles for the use of the Cauvery Reservoir Works, on the North and South Banks, from 1st March 1919 to 30th September 1919.
